Seen, Heard and Done Among
Those Who Go, Come and Tarry.

THE DISTANT HILLS ARE ALWAYS STEEP.
The task that seems so very great
From which you daily shrink in dread,
Will never dwindle while you wait
And wish the way were clear ahead.
The traveler whose feet have burned
On dusty slopes, in valleys deep,
And on the rocky heights has learned
That distant hills are always steep.

The duty that, day after day,
You sadly turn from, waiting still
And wishing it could fade away,
Perhaps is like the distant hill.
The tasks we try so hard to shun
Are often found, when fourth we leap,
At last, to end them, quickly done—
The distant hills are always steep.

Why wait when there is work for you?
Why scan it from afar and sigh?
It may not be so hard to do
If you but press ahead and try.
We let our glances backward sweep,
At all the gentle slopes in sight.
The distant hills are always steep.

LADIES FOREIGN MISSION MEETING TO-NIGHT.

The ladies of the Foreign Mission Society will have charge of the service in Gadsden street church to-night when a carefully arranged program will be carried out.
Mrs. Thompson of Nashville, Tenn., an ex-member of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of the M. E. church South, is in the city and will add much interest to the service by her presence and the information she will give concerning phases of "Woman's work for Woman."

MARRIED LADIES EUCHE RE CELEBRATED YESTERDAY.

Mrs. Louis Friedman entertained the Married Ladies Tuesday Euchre last evening with a Washington birthday affair in decoration, that was very pretty.
The national colors were everywhere and the score cards were cunning little hatchets. Miss Stella Rosenau sister of Mrs. Morris Bear was the special guest.
Mrs. Sol Cahn won the first prize a jardiniere, and Mrs. Max Bear the second a half dozen glasses.
After the game a delightful course luncheon was served in the dining room, where the color scheme was beautifully carried out, chiefly with American flags.
The table cloth was of handsome Mexican drawn work, over red and the centerpiece was a little cherry tree laden with cherries. From the chandeliers streamers of red white and blue extended to each corner of the table.

Here a fine luncheon was handsomely served, and the little American flags decorating the salad course, were given as souvenirs. The colors were carried out in the refreshments served and altogether it was a charming and unique celebration of a patriotic occasion.
The next meeting will be with Mrs. Max Klein.

B'Nai B'Rith Day.

LITERARY AND MUSICAL.

The Literary and Musicals given by Alpha Lodge, No. 219, I. O. B. B., in the parlors of the Progress Club Monday night, was a very successful and enjoyable affair, reflecting credit upon the committee of gentlemen in charge.
Mr. M. J. Heinberg, chairman and Mr. Phil Klein, Mr. Morris Levy, Mr. H. P. Newman, and Mr. Sol Cahn, as will be seen by the following interesting program under direction of Chairman Heinberg:

Program.
1. Mr. Joe Roth, president, made a few timely opening remarks.
2. Vocal solo... Mrs. Ike Hirschman.
3. Address... Rabbi Samuel Koch.
4. Violin solo... Mr. Max J. Heinberg.
5. Address... Mr. H. P. Newman.
6. Vocal solo... Mrs. Dave Harrison.
7. Address... Mr. L. B. Hirschman.
8. Piano duet... Miss Rosa Levy and Mrs. Dave Dannheisser.
The literary and musical features were followed by dancing and refreshments which the quite large crowd present enjoyed till 2 a. m.

MRS. LAMAR ENTERTAINS.

The following is clipped from the society department of the Washington Star of February 18:
Mrs. William Bailey Lamar gave a George Washington birthday luncheon to-day at the Shoreham. The twenty-two guests were seated at a round table and the decorations were Meteor roses. At each plate was a corsage bouquet of Meteor roses, tied with two little white satin favor boxes with the American flag handpainted on the top. The place cards had the initials of the hostess in silver and appropriate toasts were written on the back of each. Red was the color scheme throughout the menu, and at the conclusion a miniature cherry tree filled with crystallized cherries was passed to the guests. Those present were: Madame Calvo, Madame de Quesada, Mrs. White wife of associate justice of the United States supreme court; Mrs. Shepard, wife of chief justice of the district court of appeals; Mrs. Tallafiero, Mrs. John Sharp Williams, Mrs. James L. Sladen, Mrs. John F. Rixey, Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, Mrs. John W. Foster, Mrs. Hannis Taylor, Mrs. T. De Witt Talmage, Mrs. St. George Tucker, Mrs. Benjamin Mico, Mrs. Chataud, Mrs. George F. Becker, Mrs. Samuel Spencer, Mrs. William P. Duvall, Mrs. George Whitfield Brown, Mrs. Robert T. Fleming and Mrs. Frances S. Nash.

MRS. RUSE ILL.
Much regret is expressed at the illness of Mrs. F. N. Ruse, who is another victim of la grippe. Mrs. Ruse expected to entertain at an informal little tea Sunday afternoon for her sister, Mrs. Keyser, of Pensacola, who is here on a brief visit to her, but was taken sick, which prevented this pleasant little soiree. Mrs. Ruse's friends all unite in hoping that she may have a speedy recovery so that this carnival time will not be deprived of one of its brightest women at the different functions which are booked for the next two weeks.—Mobile Register.

Mr. Sam Bloom of Louisville, Ky., after a pleasant visit with his brother Mr. Max Bloom of the "Holly Tolly" Company of players, is now the guest of his brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Max J. Heinberg.

Miss Bertha Stewart and Miss Inez Harrison left yesterday to spend about two weeks in St. Louis.

Miss Daisy Lichten left yesterday for her home in Greenville, Ala., after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Bertha Rosenau.

Mr. Alfred McDaniel of Tampa, is among the many business men now in this city. Mr. McDaniel is the general representative of the Kemper-Thomas Co. of Cincinnati.

Mrs. Jessie Bartlett Davis of Chicago is expected to arrive about Feb. 25 on a visit to her son, Mr. William H. Davis who is located in Hotel Escombria. Mrs. Davis is the wife of the proprietor of the Iroquois theatre, a prominent and influential citizen of the "Windy City."

Mrs. John A. Merritt's entertainment Friday night for her brother and his bride and Miss Hanway, is not to be a general reception but is an informal "at home" to the friends of the honorees among the young married set and a few young people.

The third dance in the Osceola Club's regular series will be given in the club rooms this evening.

Mr. Bryan Dunwoody is confined to his home by a severe attack of grippe. Miss Margaret Wrighton leaves to-day for Mobile where she will spend a week or ten days visiting Miss Milla.

The many anxious friends of Capt. I. M. Aiken will be glad to learn that he was very much improved late last evening.

COTTON ASSOCIATION WAS FORMED YESTERDAY.

Atlanta, Feb. 21.—In every state in the cotton belt, state organizations of the Southern Cotton Association were formed to-day. The work of organization in every county in the cotton belt will now proceed and the officers of the association believe the movement to hold cotton for higher prices, reduce next year's crop and reduce the use of commercial fertilizers will then be permanently under way.

THISTLES AND DANDRUFF.

An Interesting Parallel and a Valuable Deduction Therefrom.

Cutting down thistles no more relieves the scalp cure dandruff. In each case permanent relief can only come from eradicating permanently the cause. A germ that plows up the scalp in searching for the hair root where it saps the vitality, causes dandruff, falling hair, and baldness. If you kill that germ, you'll have no dandruff but a luxuriant suit of hair. Newbro's Herpicide is the only hair preparation in the world that cures dandruff and falling hair by killing the germ. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. For sale by W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 S. Palafox. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich.

A WIRELESSGRAM FROM KING PRISCUS VI

TO LORD HIGH MARSHAL OF THE MARDI GRAS PARADE.

(By Wireless Telegraphy.)
On Board the "Rospan,"
February 21, 1905.

To C. H. Renrut, Lord High Marshal, Pensacola, Fla.:
Greeting—You are hereby commanded, as Good Marshal of the Royal Revels, appointed for the 6th and 7th days of March, next, to convey to the Worshipful T. E. Willes, Lord High Mayor of our good City of Pensacola, the Royal pleasure concerning the following points of etiquette to be observed during our stay in your city:

You shall, upon receipt of these presents, command the Lord Mayor of your city to issue an official proclamation, permitting the throwing of the substance commonly known as "Coarse Confetti" during the two aforesaid days of the Royal Revels; and prohibiting the use by any person or persons whatsoever of the annoying devices known as "Rubber Balls," "Sticks" or "Canes" and "Dusters" during the Carnival season.

And it is also the Royal pleasure that you forthwith command the presence of the Lord Mayor, together with his officials and attendants, all and singular, at the wharf called Palafox at high noon on Monday, the 6th day of March, proximo, to participate in the reception of the King and to take part in the grand parade that is to follow.

Herein fail not on pain of the Royal displeasure.

Given under my hand and seal this 21st day of February, A. D. 1905.

PRISCUS REX.

Attest—SECH. TERRIM, Grand Chamberlain.

ITCH—RINGWORM.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes, April 25th, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on two separate occasions for ring worm and it cured completely. 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle. Sold by all druggists."

REMOVAL NOTICE.

The Pensacola Buggy Works, for many years located at No. 15 East Garden street, back of A. M. Avery's store, has moved its plant from the old stand and is now located in the Hillard building next to the Southern Hotel on Garden street, they having purchased that property.
Increased business has made the change necessary, and they are now prepared to handle all repair work and manufacture all grades of vehicles even better than before—if such a thing is possible.
